

Baseline Evaluation

Ryan White is the payer of last resort

Determine eligibility

Food allergies documented

Dietary restrictions documented

Service Plan

If the client has received services for greater than six months the provider developed a pathway to move clients to more stable food resources

Budget plan documented

Further or Continued Services

The plan must be reevaluated at least every six months

Client returned farmers market/grocery receipts

Collaboration with referring agency to determine the next steps for the client

Administrative Standard of Care Relating to the Wellness Center

The agency meets State of CT Public Health Code for food handling and preparation

The agency offers training for the staff and volunteers

Retention in Care

Client remained in Care due to services